glad to hear that
you are well.

I have your letter
of the 15th and am
you are well.

I have your letter of the 15th and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the country and have not yet returned to the city. I have been very busy with my business and have not had much time to devote to my correspondence. I hope to return to the city in a few days and will then be able to write you more fully. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours,
John Jay
