

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header, including the word "Hymn" and other illegible characters.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, consisting of several lines of prose or poetry.