

Anno San Januarius & S. Spiritus Sanuarius

Ita ut... in... hanc...

De... hanc...

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, containing several lines of dense handwriting.

Handwritten text in Church Slavonic, likely from a manuscript or liturgical book. The script is dense and features various diacritical marks and ligatures characteristic of the Cyrillic-based Church Slavonic alphabet. The text is arranged in approximately 24 horizontal lines. The script is highly stylized and cursive, with many overlapping letters and frequent use of decorative flourishes. The ink is dark, and the parchment or paper shows signs of age, including some staining and uneven texture. The text is difficult to transcribe accurately due to the complexity of the script and the lack of a clear reference text.
