Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land or property, given the use of terms like "maneria" and "terra". The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect used.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines appearing to be numbered (e.g., '1', '2'). The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher precisely, but it appears to be a continuous narrative or record.
