Epistola de melle tunc Hemerica 7 26 m. d. n. trans
Intra caudam m. b.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and spans the entire page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a collection or inventory. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language or dialect used. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. There are some faint markings and corrections throughout the document, suggesting it was written or revised over time. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical record.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land, property, or administrative matters. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. There are some large, bold initials or signatures interspersed throughout the text, such as 'NB' near the bottom center and 'NB' near the bottom right. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical record book or ledger.
